

TAMEJAVI PRESENTS

Native American & Indigenous

Short Films

September 22, 2007

Bonner Auditorium • Fresno Art Museum

2233 N. First Street • Fresno, CA 93703

3:30PM – 4:30 PM

A collection of short films made by Native Americans and Indigenous Filmmakers from Mexico and U.S.A. The stories vary from an animated tale of the P'urhepecha legend of princess Hapunda to the story of two young men's life-changing encounter with an elder in the waiting room of a hospital. These movies express a vision, often a new one in cinema, of the new and old social climate among Native American and Indigenous worlds.

Tamejavi welcomes director Cedar Sherbert (Gesture Down(I Don't Sing) to present his film and participate in a Q&A following the series. Sherbert is a member of the Santa Ysabel Band of Diegueño (Kumeyaay) Indians, whose reservation is located in northeastern San Diego County. He holds an MFA in film production from the University of Southern California School of Cinema/Television, where as an undergraduate he also earned an academic minor in Critical Studies. He is currently finishing work on a full-length adaptation of the short story "The Life and Times of Estelle Walks Above" by Sherman Alexie.

3:30PM – 4:30 PM

Format: Various
(director, Gesture Down)

These movies are not officially rated, but some may not be suitable for children because of the use of language.

For more information: (559) 222-7678 or www.tamejavi.org

A Project of the Pan Valley Institute of the American Friends Service Committee