

TAMEJAVI PRESENTS

to love is to learn...

Kenny Lee

Houa Lee

Tou & Mai

TEAM CHOW FA PRODUCTION

DIRECTED BY KANG VANG

September 22, 2007

Bonner Auditorium • Fresno Art Museum

2233 N. First Street • Fresno, CA 93703

A romantic Hmong comedy

about Tou, a troubled youth whose uncle gives him one more chance to redeem himself by tutoring Mai, a newly arrived refugee from the Wat Thom Krabok camp in Thailand. At first the two personalities clash, but soon a strong bond forms amidst turmoil between their friends and elders.

Tamejavi welcomes Writer/Actor Wa Yang who will present the movie and participate in a Q&A with the audience following the movie. Yang was born in St. Paul, MN. He studied at the Metropolitan State University and earned his B.A. in Independent studies, focus on media and marketing. He has been working in film and television for 6 years and recently moved to Los Angeles to explore mainstream media. His goals are to educate the general public through the use of entertainment.

Preceded by Orphan Boys, a short film by Abel Vang, local filmmaker and musician and based on a poem by Burlee Vang.

11:00AM – 12:30PM

Tou & Mai (Dir. Kang Vang)
2006, 90 Min

FREE ADMISSION

Seating is limited

This movie is not officially rated, but may not be suitable for children because of the use of language and crude sexual humor.

For more information: (559) 222-7678 or www.tamejavi.org

A Project of the Pan Valley Institute of the American Friends Service Committee